DANIELSON AND PUTNAM NEWS

DANIELSON

Persons who are looking for something profitable to do with their loose change will find ideal employment for it in depositing it in the receptacles that have been placed in business places about town to receive contributions for the fund that is to be created to furnish Christmas cheer for needy families. This holiday period charity has been maintained for more than a decade and is now a firmly fixed custom in Danielson. Each year the money that is received goes to buy foodstuffs and fuel and other practical things for families that are in real need. Never a penny wasted is the rule followed in making the distribution which means so much in a number of homes where they would be little joy at Yuletide were it not for this Christmas fund, to which all are invited to contribute.

Though all the receipts were not in Thursday, it was stated that the Danielson Girls' club would net approximately $100, according to forecasts, from the presentation of the play—A Chinese Lantern—in the Orpheum theater Thursday evening. The play and the very capable manner in which it was presented was well deserving of the reward that it brings in financial form, to the members of the cast especially, and to the club as a whole.

Rev. M. Joseph Tremey of Newark, N. J., formerly pastor here, is to deliver the ordination sermon next Wednesday evening at the Baptist church when Rev. J. W. Houck is to be ordained. Invitations to participate in the service have been extended to Rev. B. U. Hatfield of Westerly, Rev. D. J. Nelly of Hartford, Mass., Rev. W. D. Swafford of Keene, N. H., all former pastors of the Baptist church here. Following the ordination service, for which arrangements are being completed, there is to be a reception in Mr. Houck's home.

During the past two weeks Secretary J. H. Corbett has made a visit to South Killingly with Rev. Walter Williams of Danielson, for the purpose of meeting with a young men's group with which he has been working the past year and of explaining to them the program of the County Y. M. C. A. The young men decided to affiliate with the County Y. M. C. A. and take up the regular four-fold training program for the program of their group. They elected officers and appointed committees and will hold weekly meetings. Rev. Mr. Williams will continue as leader of the group.

The local Y. M. C. A. committee of Brooklyn, consisting of Marshall Peck, Sherwood Potter, Sidney Reed, Elliott Allen, I. W. Chapman and Rev. Pratt, has succeeded in organizing two groups of boys, one consisting of about fifteen members between 12 and 15, the other one of about twenty members between 16 and 21 years. They have secured the use of the town hall two nights each week for the regular meetings of these groups and have secured the services of competent leaders. Sherwood Potter for the older boys and Kimball Hargraves for the younger group.

Young men resident in this vicinity who feel a call to the army life will be given an opportunity next Monday to sign up for service with the Coast Artillery corps, in which upwards of 100 young men from this vicinity served as volunteers during the World war, many of them seeing service in France.

Monday will bring to Danielson a recruiting officer from Fort H. G. Wright, one of the stations of the New London artillery district, and he is to be at the postoffice from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. to interview prospective candidates for enlistment. Recruits between 18 and 35 years of age are not less than five feet four inches in height and weigh as much as 150 pounds will be considered. The coast artillery is an interesting branch of the service and more or less relative to it is known in Danielson and vicinity through the fact that so many of Danielson's young men have seen service in the arm of the nation's defenses.

Rose of Lima council, K. of C., has another class of 25 members ready to receive degrees. An exemplification of the third degree—that of knighthood—will be arranged at an early date. The council has grown remarkably since the return of many of Danielson's young men from the World war, during which, while serving overseas, they learned to appreciate the K. of C. through many little services rendered the men in khaki.

Much was done throughout this territory during Thursday to bring telephone service back to normal. Many lines that have been out of service since Monday were restored to working order, a fact that was appreciated by subscribers, especially those in outlying districts of the town.

Next Tuesday evening at the central fire station, J. H. Corbett, county Y. M. C. A. secretary will address the members of the Danielson Chamber of Commerce and will explain and illustrate to them just what the Y. M. C. A. plans to accomplish for the benefit of young men through its county work. Secretary Corbett is an interesting speaker and thoroughly familiar with his subject.

Killingly High school's basketball team will open its season with the Stafford Springs high school team as opponents. Stafford Springs will be a new school team to Danielson audiences and its coming will be awaited with interest.

There is not much community of interests in some sections hereabouts, as attested by the fact that trees that have blown over and fallen across highways remain where they have lain for several days, while all persons passing by drive around them.

With the opening of December here the weather has been unusually mild day for so late in the season.

During the sale of Tuesday a great tree crashed down upon a woodchopper's shanty in which two men were working. The tree fell within a few miles east of Danielson. Both men escaped injury, though their abode was wrecked.

Novelties that are being displayed are receiving the closest inspection from scores of children who hope to possess them on the holiday.

A Get-together party was held in the vestry of the Congregational church on Thursday evening, the affair including a social hour.

At the Pentecostal church on Academy street, Saturday evening, a prayer meeting that is scheduled to open at 8 o'clock will continue until after the midnight hour.

PUTNAM

Owen Armstrong, former United States marine, returned to Putnam after an absence of a month on a route to his home in Providence, after a bike that has taken him as far west as Pittsburgh, at which city he abandoned his walk to Missouri and decided to make his way back to his home city.

Armstrong has had an interesting experience since setting out from Putnam, and has not averaged over six miles a day walking, many automobiles, attracted by his striking walking outfit, giving him lifts that on many occasions set him long distances ahead on his route.

He wears corduroy trousers, high walking boots, a hessian green plaid shirt and the well known campaign or service hat of the marines, with the insignia of the famous Devil Dogs attached. About his waist is strapped an ammunition belt carrying a capacity load of bullets and at his left hip a business-like revolver is strapped.

Armstrong served overseas with the 51st company of the Fifth regiment of marines and was in France 11 months, much of the time spent in hospitals recovering from wounds which have left scars.

Since leaving Putnam he has collected numbers of letters from majors of towns and cities where he has stopped, and of Y. M. C. A. secretaries who attest that his cowboy roping and other entertainment stunts have proved pleasing to members of Ys where he has stopped.

Armstrong has only more miles to cover to get back to his home city, after reaching Putnam Thursday.

Somewhere in New Hampshire, a nearly new touring car owned by a Putnam man is held in lock, as it were, after being seized last Sunday while carrying ten cases of Canadian whiskey that was being brought to this city from the province of Quebec.

All the details relative to the interesting case have not been divulged for the public to be entertained in considering, but it appears that the car left here one day last week for the Canadian border. A load of whiskey was secured that it is said was destined for delivery here and the program of bringing it through proceeded satisfactorily until some town in New Hampshire was reached and there the car attracted the suspicion of officers and it was held up, the liquor seized and the driver fined a matter of $250, it is reported.

The seized car is valued in excess of $1500. The liquor approximately $400 to $500 more. Then there is the matter of the fine and the trip costs all combined representing a loss that would give the

Lady So Weak She Could Scarcely Walk

After Years of Suffering Quickly Regains Strength

Mrs. T. R. Crane, of St. Johnland, Kings Park, Long Island, N. Y., writes: "I suffered for years with non-assimilation of food, gas and bloating to a very distressing degree, nervousness, nervous chills, and irregular and weak heart action. I lost flesh and strength until I was scarcely able to walk from my home. My limbs got so numb and weak that when I tried to walk even a short distance I felt I must sit down at once if I didn't want to fall down."

A friend told me that what I needed was Wincarnal, that it would be the best thing in the world for me. I took Wincarnal and such it proved to be in my case. It helped me in every way and did it quickly. I soon gained new flesh and blood, strength and vim. I feel alive once more. I always keep Wincarnal on hand for I found it a friend, tried and true."

Wincarnal is a tonic, a restorative, a Bloodmaker and a Nerve-strengthening agent in one. It supplies to the system those mineral elements without which the body is absolutely unable to create necessary vital energy and nerve force. That is why Mrs. Crane improved so rapidly while taking Wincarnal. The same result has followed the use of Wincarnal in thousands of similar and equally pitiful cases. It has been recommended by more than 10,000 physicians who, from personal experience have found Wincarnal to possess extraordinary power to promote health in those who are weak, nervous or run-down, or who are martyrs to indigestion or enfeebled by Old Age, or who are suffering from any of the ailments that result from a lack of strength after a wasting illness.

Wincarnal is put up in two sizes—$1.10 and $1.35. It is sold by National Drug Stores, Main and Shetucket Sts., and all other first class drug stores. Write for free instructive booklet, "Hundred Per-Cent Health, How To Obtain It," to Edward L. Lippincott, Inc., Dept. C, 409 West 43rd Street, New York, U. S. Agents for Wincarnal.

average more of a headache than any case of the lost base.

Announcement is made of the organization of an association of physicians of the towns of Putnam, R. I., Woodstock and Thompson and the election of Dr. J. Bryden Kent of this city as president and Dr. Edward F. Perry of this city as secretary. The association is organized for social purposes as well as for providing opportunity for discussing medical subjects and considering reports on cases of especially interesting nature.

Meetings are to be held each month and will be more or less informal. The first of these meetings will be held recently at the home of Dr. Kent, eight physicians being in attendance to enjoy a profitable evening. The next meeting is to be held Dec. 20, with Dr. R. B. Overlock, at Pomfret, and it is hoped that every member of the profession in the territory named will be present for this meeting.

The meeting of the Windham County Farmers' Association is to be held in Odd Fellows' hall, Pomfret street, Putnam, today (Friday) starting at 10.30. Different farmers will report on the different projects that have been carried on by the Farmers' Association during the past year. This system is significant in that it shows that the farmers are in touch with what their organization is doing, and because since it is the case, practical plans can be drawn up as to future agricultural development in Windham county.

Due to the definite aims and accomplishments in the dairy policy if agricultural development, J. M. Whittleser, state commissioner of domestic animals, was secured as a speaker to head up the dairy program at the meeting.

Miss Dorothy Buckley, extension specialist of the agricultural college, works into the dairy program in a splendid manner, due to the fact she has been doing extensive work in promoting the consumption of milk. Her talk will be of great interest to the women who will attend the meeting, since the subject that she is taking deals with the child health program.

A great deal of interest is being shown in the meeting of the Farmers' association this year and the following construction program has already interested farmers from all parts so that today's meeting will be a real get-together on the part of the farmers of Windham county. 10.30, business session, 12, William S. Warren, Eastford, will report on the work of the County Holstein association since its organization; 12.15, John E. Dorsey, Putnam; 12.30, John Z. Labelle, Killingly, will report on the dairy work done in Putnam, will report on the work of the County.

street, is in a critical condition at his home, suffering with concussion of the brain and a fractured leg, as the result of being struck by an automobile operated by Thomas Wyle on Valley street Wednesday afternoon. The Bombray boy, according to the story, suddenly ran out into the road in front of Wyle's car and before the car could be stopped the boy had been struck. He was unconscious when picked up and remained in that state throughout Thursday.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce held the December meeting Thursday night at the ladies' room, made relative to the Ladies' night to be held Tuesday, Dec. 6, at the town building. President Charles W. Hill presided at the meeting.

If December continues as it was Thursday, it will prove a record month for good weather. One did not need an overcoat during the greater part of the day, but the early morning hours and evening hours were somewhat more wintry.

The funeral of Mrs. Philomena Turcotte was held Thursday morning at 8.30 o'clock at her home, 15 Milk street. Requiem high mass at St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock was sung by Rev. J. J. Taylor. As the body was borne into the church a delegation of the Society of St. Anne formed an escort to the sanctuary rail. The canopy bearers were Mrs. M. East, Mrs. E. St. Laurent, Mrs. E. Hurteau, Mrs. and Mrs. T. Lamontagne, Mrs. E. Cote, Mrs. A. Bertrand and Mrs. J. B. Poirer carried the banner. There was special singing by the St. Anne choir. Mrs. Joseph F. Gaudreau was at the organ. At the offertory Mrs. Delphis Boucher sang Pie Jesus, and for a waiting hymn Les Adieu, de Schubert. Other solo were by Mrs. H. Dion and Mrs. E. Beaudry. The bearers were Samuel Bonin, Alphonse Gelin, Sr., Alphonse Chagnon and Adolphe Lafontaine. Burial was in the family plot in St. Joseph's cemetery. A committal service was read at the grave by Rev. J. J. Pappillon, assisted by Rev. H. Beje.
